Blackpool area

one-hour weekly session on any day that suits the volunteer

What you will be doing:

We would love a volunteer to bake tasty treats with our residents in the Blackpool area.

What you'll gain:

The volunteer will provide a meaningful life skill through a fun activity and make new friends with the people they support.

What you need:

The volunteer will need to have some experience of baking. Volunteers need to have patience, a kind, caring attitude and an interest in helping people to be more independent.
