Community Engagement Volunteers – Hollyhill Residential Service

Hollyhill

A 2–4-hours, morning or afternoon slot, on any day that suits you.

What the role involves:

Supporting residents to take part in local community activities such as:

- Walks, coffee outings, social groups
- Attending local events and activities
- Everyday community participation.

You'll be helping people feel included, confident and connected.

Who we're looking for

- Friendly, outgoing, sociable volunteers
- Kind, positive attitude
- Interest in supporting people with an intellectual disability and additional needs such as autism or physical and medical conditions
- Fluent English
- Full Driving license preferred.

No experience needed - just warmth and willingness.

Why volunteer with us:

- Build meaningful connections
- Support inclusion and independence
- Enjoy relaxed, sociable activities
- Make a real difference in someone's daily life
- Flexible, enjoyable, and genuinely impactful.
